(Indicate by rating them with 1 being the major and 5 being the minor strength)

	1	2	3	4	5
It is the only scheme that exists at that level
The Funding is centralised
The stipend is comparable with the salary that the student would have earned, had they been working. This is definitely a boost as it cushions students against lost earnings.
It does not interfere with the academic activity.
It contributes to capacity building in research.

Any other, please specify:

(ii) What are the weaknesses, of the TEC Scheme according to you?
(Indicate by rating them with 1 being the major and 5 being the minor weakness)

	1	2	3	4	5
Many students are not aware of the Scheme
Payments are not regular.
The stipends are not attractive enough to prevent students dropping out to take employment.
The suitability and relevance of the research projects is not always taken into account.
Follow-up by TEC is rather limited.

Any other, please specify:
